Assessment Task

Write a 500-word (+/-10%) reflective journal to critically evaluate your WIL placement organisation and determine a potential software solution for a problem the organisation is facing.

Please refer to the Task Instructions for details on how to complete this task.

Context

Work Integrated Learning is an umbrella term that is often used to encapsulate any kind of learning that has a practical element to it. The major benefit of Work Integrated Learning is that it allows you to apply the theoretical concepts you have learnt in a practical setting. All assessments in this course aim to further develop your skills in the working environment.

Knowing about and having a keen understanding of the organisation and the team members you are working with is critical when working in any professional environment. This assessment will enable you to further develop essential skills relating to exploring job requirements, applying analytical abilities and professional relationship building.

Task Instructions

To complete this assessment, ensure you address the following:

- Introduce the organisation:

- the type of organisation
- the type of project the organisation is working on
- the size of the organisation in terms of employees and so on.

Module 1 resources will help you in writing this section, please go through all of them before attempting this part.

- Detail the structure of your team:

- the number of team members
- hierarchy of the team
- the nature of projects your team is working on such as development, maintenance or operations
- what your role is
- what the organisation is expecting from you during your placement.

- Analyse the actions you have performed that helped towards building better relationship among team members

- Provide an explanation about the responsibilities you have been given and how you have gathered this information; for example, from your line manager, HR representative or your team members.

- Provide your analysis on the processes and procedures that are currently in place in your organisation and identify the strengths and weaknesses. Also determine how to optimise the processes and include evidence to support your methods.
  - propose and discuss a potential software engineering project that may offer solutions to the problems experienced.

Reflective Journal Structure

Utilise the following structure for your e500-word (+/-10%) Reflective Journal entry:

- Introduction - Background information (75 to 100 words)
  - The introduction should include the type of organisation, nature of the industry, what type of projects this organisation is working on, the organisation's size in terms of employee numbers and any other background information critical to understanding the organisation.
  - The introduction should also include the information regarding the team you are working within.
- Insightful Observations and Possible Solutions (250 to 300 words)
  - Provide an overview of your workplace requirements and expectations.
  - Describe the project planning tools used in the organisation you are placed in.
  - Outline the relevant ICT infrastructure that is currently is being used in the organisation.
  - Provide your recommendations on how to optimise the current processes in place.
  - Provide a possible solution to rectify the current problems the organisation is facing.
- Conclusion (75 to 100 words) - How will this informed account assist you in your industry placement interview?

If any sources are used, you must include in-text citations and references in APA style.

Please refer to the Assessment Rubric for more details.

Tips for Writing Reflective Journal entries

- When writing your reflective journal, the style of writing is more informal, but you should still use full sentences.
- Remember that a reflective journal is a record of your thoughts about your learning during your studies and the WIL placement, so you should describe your experiences of these and provide your analysis and reflection on them.

- Ensure you include any in-text citations and references if you refer to any sources in your reflective journal.

Referencing

It is essential that you use appropriate APA style for citing and referencing research. Please see more information on referencing in the Academic Skills webpage.

Submission Instructions

Submit this task via the Assessment 1 link in the main navigation menu in ITW601 Information Technology - Work Integrated Learning. Please save your assessment and submit it as the title of your submission using the following naming convention:

subjcode_Module#_surname_firstname_assessment_title

(e.g., ITW601_M4_Jones_Sarah_A1_Option 1 Industry Placement)

Your Learning Facilitator will provide feedback via the Grade Centre in the LMS portal. Feedback can be viewed in My Grades.

Academic Integrity

All students are responsible for ensuring that all work submitted is their own and is appropriately referenced and academically written according to the Academic Writing Guide. Students also need to have read and be aware of the Torrens University Australia Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure and subsequent penalties for academic misconduct. These are viewable online.

Students also must keep a copy of all submitted material and any assessment drafts.

Special Consideration

To apply for special consideration for a modification to an assessment or exam due to unexpected or extenuating circumstances, please consult the Assessment Policy for Higher Education Coursework and ELICOS and, if applicable to your circumstance, submit a completed Application for Assessment Special Consideration Form to your Learning Facilitator.
